

Project 21st Century European Classrooms:
Meeting the challenge of the digital era with innovation and creativity

EDUCATION IN THE DIGITAL ERA: A GOOD PRACTICES INSIGHT

21st July 2016

Auditorium 2 | Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation

60
ANOS

09:30 – 10:00 – Opening Session

Tiago Brandão Rodrigues, Minister of Education (*)

Guilherme d'Oliveira Martins, Trustee of Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation

10:00 – 10:30 – Introduction to the Project and Presentation of the Good Practices Notebook

José Loios, Director of Atougua da Baleia Schools Cluster

Ana Batalha, Project Coordinator

10:30 – 11:15 – Education in the Digital Era

António Dias de Figueiredo, Emeritus Professor at the Coimbra University

Jim Ayre, Senior Advisor European Schoolnet

Júlio Pedrosa, Emeritus Professor at the Aveiro University

11:15 – 11:30 – Coffee Break

11:30 – 11:45 – Teachers Training and Educational Success Improvement-New training models to new challenges and different contexts

Nicolau Borges, Director of the Training Center Central-West Schools Association

11:45 – 12:30 – Fostering Changes in Learning Processes: Learning Communities Gulbenkian XXI

José Verdasca, Professor at the Évora University

12:30 – 14:30 – Lunch

14:30 - 16:00 – Experiences and the Best Practices in six European countries, under the theme 21st Century European Classrooms:

14.30 – 14.45 – Atougua da Baleia Schools Cluster, Portugal

14:45 – 15.00 – SOUEE "Konstantin - Kiril Filosof, Bulgari

15:15 – 15.30 – IES Las Banderas, Spain

15:30 – 15.45 – IIS Vittorio Emanuele II, Italy

15:45 – 16:00 – Miejskie Gimnazjum nr 1 im. Jana Pawła II w Knurowie, Poland

16:00 – 16:15 – Promethean Limited, United Kingdom

16:30 – 16:45 – Coffee Break

16:45 – 17:00 – Project Evaluation

Paulo Moreira, Gulbenkian Programme Empowering Next Generations

17:00 – 17:30 – Closing Session

Manuel Carmelo Rosa, Director of Gulbenkian Programme Empowering Next Generations

Ana Batalha – Project Coordinator

Mafalda Leónidas – Adviser of Gulbenkian Programme Empowering Next Generations

Ana Teresa Santos - Rapporteur

(*) to be confirmed